NEWS OF THE DAY.

George Williams, formerly of Lafayette, Ind., was brought back from Peru in a serious condition, resulting from injuries inflicted in an extraordinary manner at the time of the flood in that city. He was employed at an interurban substation, and when the water began to rise he was unable to escape. He was compelled to climb higher and higher until he reached the rafters of the garret, where he hung by his arms to keep his head above water. A number of hungry rats, driven from their haunts began to attack him, and he was powerless to defend himself, beng obliged to hang for his life. The rats gnawed off both ears. Blood poisoning has now set in, and his condition is serious.

THREE ENTER RACE FOR LEGISLATURE

Latest Candidate to Enter Political Field O. P. Angelo.

ELECTION JULY 8th.

Entry of Third Man Makes Election More Interesting—County Registration is Low This Year.

O. P. Angelo, a well known engineer of the Southern Railway, made the formal announcement this morning that he would be a candidate for the Virginia House of Delegates in the Democratic primary to be held on July 8th.

The anouncement came as a complete surprise to the politicians of Alexandria, as it was not known that Mr. Angelo had political ambitions. It developed, however that he has had the "legislative bee" in his bonnet for some time, and has been quietly working among his friends and acquaintances. It is said that he received so many assurances of support, that he determined today to shy his hat in the ring.

Mr. Angelo's candidacy will make a three-cornered race, the outcome of which has set the politicians at sea. The other two candidates are J. Fred Birrell, one of the best known citizens of Alexandria, for many years a member of the City Council, and Maj. E. W. Ewing, of Ballston, Alexandria county.

Mr. Birrell was a candidate four years ago against Hon. Robnson Moncure, the present incumbent, who will not be a candidate for re-election. He was defeated by Mr. Moncure, and when the latter announced two years ago, that he would not run after his present term expired, Mr. Birrell again entered the race.

Maj. Ewing is a newcomer in the political game, his candidacy having been announced several weeks ago. He has seemingly acomplished the almost hopeless task of uniting the various factions in the county in his behalf and a recent circular issued in his interest is signed by the leaders of the two opposing branches of the Democratic party in the county.

Mr. Angelo has never held public office. He, however, has been prominent in fraternal organizations, being local chairman, secretary and treasurer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers in this city. He is prominent in Masonic circles. He stated this morning that he is confident of his election and would go to the legislature untrammeled He said that he did not represent any faction in the party and was absolutely free to do what he thought was for the best interests of the people of the state. He declared while he would be new in legislative matters, he would have plenty of good friends to advise him.

Mr. Birrell stated today that the entry of Mr. Angelo in the field would have no effect on his election. He has already made a thorough canvas of both the city and county and has received the most cordial reception. He has secured many promises from the people of the county and expects to poll a large vote throughout Major Ewing's own territory.

It is said that the qualified voters in the county is very much lower this year than ever before. At the county court house this morning it was stated that the total number of voters had not been counted up and no information was given out. A well known resident of the county stated today that the voting strength of the county this year would be less that 1,100. Last year over 1,400 paid their poll taxes. In Alexandria City 1,720 have aid their poll taxes, and, in addition, there are a number of old soldiers who are qualified to vote.

The time for the filing of names will expire on May 8th. The cost of the primary, which is estimated at $125, will be divided among the candidates.

Among the patents recently issued in Washington was one for a drip pan for refrigerator cars, to Ralph N. Pierpoint, Alexandria.

The supper table is to be in charge of four representatives of each of the churches.

The refreshment table to be represented by the managers of the children's ward at Hospital, composed of members from several of the churches. These are the initative plans for the hospital bazaar, subject to necessary changes and additions.

Mrs. L. Wilbur Reid, chairman of the committee says:

"The ladies forming the committee are all faithful church workers, looking hopefully forward to the liberal assistance of all the people of Alexandria to whom it is only necessary to appeal, arousing in the main interest in the great need for a greater hospital The fine work that has been done in the past, speaks and has spoken to the hearts of all Alexandrians as well as to so many stragers who have received help for their invalids. Our people most sincerly appreciate the great comfort it has been to have our dear sick tenderly and skillfully cared for so near our homes. So we are appealing earnestly for your aid—for the enlargement of our hospital's capacity—for more good and even better work." consequent upon having more commodious and more modern conveniences."

SUMMER HEAT YESTERDAY.

Old Sol Runs Mercury Up to Ninety Degrees in the Afternoon.

The weather yesterday was suggestive of mid-summer, an dseasonable clothing was in evidence. The temperature was uncomfortably high during the morning hours, and in the afternoon the heat became more intense. During the night the wind changed to the northwest and early this morning conditions were more comfortable.

Warm spots in the east and frosts in the northwest and the Rocky Mountain country were forecasted in the Weather Bureau's weekly bulletin last night. The bulletin indicated that during the week temperatures would average about normal east of the Mississippi river and below normal over the plain states and the Rocky Mountain and pleteau regions.

WILL RETURN GIFTS OF OCTOGENARIAN

Mrs. Laura R. Cramer Will Be Compelled to Surrender $40,000.

GOT SPOOK LETTERS.

Charge That Fenton J. Hurd, was of Unsound Mind When he Bequeathed The Money.

Washington, May 5.—Mrs. Laura R. Cramer an employe, of the department of State, must surrender the $40,000 alleged to have been given to her by Fenton J .Hurd, 89 years old, as a result of spiritualistic representations and "spook" letters.

This was the decision of the Court of Appeals today in reversing the judgment of the lower court, which held that Mrs. Cramer was entitled to retain the money.

Mrs. Cramer claims that the money was given to her by the octogenarian in consideration of kind treatment.

Dr. Lee M. Hurd, the plaintiff and grandson of the aged man, in his petition charged that his grandfather was of unsound mind, and that Mrs. Cramer, as a result of fraud and spiritualism, obtained the bequests. He alleged that Mrs. Cramer represented that she was able to communicate with his dead grandmother and in that way prey on the gullibility of the elder Hurd.

In his deposition, Mr. Hurd, the octogenarian, declared that he had received 50 to 100 letters which he believed were "messages from the dead" conveyed through Mrs. Cramer. Many of them were alleged to have been of the spiritualistic nature. He admitted that he had been a spiritualist for forty years.

CARDINALS VS. BALLSTON.

The strong base ball team from Ballston, Va., will come to Alexandria next Wednesday May 7th, to play the Cardinal Athletic Club, in the baseball park, north Alfred street.

The "country kids" will bring to town their whole village to root for them.

The Alexandria fans will be on hand to root for the Cardinals. When the local baseball lads receive the support and encouragement they deserve then will there be gilt-edged baseball in this city. Nothing is more disheartening to any baseball team that when they go out on the field to play to see only a few people sitting in the stands and bleachers. Both the Cardinals and Alexandria Hgh School teams have good men on their line ups, but neither have many of their friends present when star plays are made. One of the prettiest and most sensational plays ever witnessed on an Alexandria diamond was made by "Happy Deavers" in the Georgetown Freshman-Alexandria High School game at the park recently when that youngster made a double play unassisted and won the honors for his school.

ASCENSION DAY SERVICES.

Interesting and Instructive Sermon in the Second Prespyterian Church

Wearing the full dress uniforms of the Knights Templar and bearing the black and gold banners of the order, the Stars and Stripes and the Virginia flag members of Old Dominion Commandery, No. 11, Knights Templar, marched from the Masonic Temple yesterday afternoon to the Second Presbyterian Church, where the annaul Ascension Day services were held. On King street the formation of a cross was made, the officers and past commanders forming the top with the standard bearers in the center.

The members of the order entered the church singing, "Onward, Christian Soldiers." When the creed was said the Knights arose with drawn sword and testified to their belief in the cardinal principles of the Christian faith.

Dr. Allison took as his text 1 Tim. 3:16 "Received up into Glory." His theme was the Miracle of Miracles—the God—Man. He said the character Christ is the greatest of all mysteries and as he is thoughtfully studied there appears in Him an unknown and unknowable quantity. He outgrows human proportions and the dimensions of a mere man. He must have been the promised Messiah and Son of God, and declared so to be by His Resurrection and ascension to the Father's right hand in glory. He was no myth or product of Jewish fancy. The old Testament prophets present a portrait of such a character and career and subsequent New Testament history was a splendid realization of these prophesies. The Christ life and character exist today in history and is also found in the personal experiences of the Christian. He is in the arts, for some of the most beautiful paintings are inspired and immortalized by Him, the most enduring and soul stirring hymns enshrine His incomparable life in clear cut gems of verse.

This being, the Son of God and the Son of Man, has marched through the centuries with the tread and trophies of a conscious conqueror and by His life of love and sacrifice, God our Father, has touched sinning, suffering humanity with the power of healing and salvation.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Man Wanted for Murder Ends Life in State of Washington.

Richmond, May 5.—Six years ago Charles B. Meade shot and killed Andrew J. Porter in Scott county, and immediately thereafter the man made his escape. Two years later, in 1909, he was found in Wyoming, and the sheriff made a trip there to get him and brought him back to Virginia.

But Meade had not the least idea of standing trial, and when near Appalachia he managed to elude the sheriff.

For four years he remained in hiding, but two weeks ago he was identified and recaptured in Tacoma, Wash.

He was arrested and placed in prison to await the outcome of an application for a requisition. The papers were found to be in correct shape, and it was desired to establish clearly if it was the same man who had made his escape from the sheriff after having been brought back to Virginia at the public expense. That was done. But Meade will not come back to stand trial. A letter received from the sheriff of Scott county, C. D. Daughtrey, says that Meade, after confessing to the officers that he is the man wanted in Virginia for murder, has succeeded in taking his life.

That happened on April 11th, the news just reaching here last night. The death of the prisoner was vouched for by the Chief of Police of Tacoma, who identified the man when he was arrested the first time in Wyoming.

NEGROES BREAK JAIL.

They Saw Through Bars And Scale High Wall.

Norfolk, Va., May 5.—Tweleve negroes convicted of various crimes, from grand larceny to housesbreaking, made their escape from the Norfolk county jail, located in Portsmouth, before daybreak yesterday morning.

In the gang were C. W. Walker, and R. M. Collins, notorious trolley wire thieves. This pair was sentenced to the penitentiary for five years for cutting trolley wires and selling the copper to junk dealers.

The negroes were to have been taken to the penitentiary today. They made their escape by sawing iron bars in the second-story window of the jail. They cut a blanket in strips and slid down to the yard below. Then they scaled a 12-foot wall. Lem Brooks, a trusty," who was guarding the negroes, is also missing, and he is believed to have aided them to escape. Bloodhounds are on the trail of the fugitives.

Suicide in Lynchburg.

Lynchburg, Va., May 5.—C. G. Offerdinger Sr., aged 68 years, the head of a well-known Lynchburg family, committed suicide at his home some time Saturday night, being found this morning. TRAIN RUNS DOWN CRIPPLPE.

Negro Caught on Norfolk and Western Trestel And Killed.

Pulaski, Va., May 5.—Kaney Garner, a barly crippled colored man with rheumatism, was caught on the trestle of the Norfolk and Western near the city Friday, and killed by a freight train. He and a companion were attempting to cross a high trestle, and when about half way across a double-headed freight came around a curve in a deep cut. The train was too close to stop before it struck Garner, while his companion succeeded in making his escape off the end, but both men being old,he could only look after his own safety. The man was thrown down the embanment and rolled partially into the branch where the trestle spans. He died in about five minutes,the skull having ben crushed in, a leg and arm broken, besides numerous other bruises. But for his crippled condition he could have gotten out of danger after seeing the train, but as it was he saw his fate and told his comrade the train had him. He was seventy-five years old.

CHICKENS MAY COME HOME TO ROOST.

Several years ago when anarchy was about to raise its hideous head in Paris, London Punch in a cartoon represented the shade of Louis the Sixteenth appearing and uttering ominous words concerning the reproduction in the twentieth century of scenes akin to those of the eighteenth. The French, however, managed to beat down the tide of discontent and eventually placed reason on the throne, but not of the type of wife of the printer who was caried by Jacobins and placed on the altar of Notre Dame.

While as members of the great English-speaking race, we earnestly hope no serious trouble is in store for the mother country, yet the singing of the Marseillaise Hymn at Charing Cross, London, is a serious sign of the times. In 1897 it required servicves of three hundred policemen to preserve order while a meeting of radical members of the human race was being held under the shadow of Nelson's shaft at Trafalgar Square.

Wild scenes of disorder occurred yesterday at the demonstration in Trafalgar Square under the auspices of the free speech defense committee. The police tried to prevent speeches from the Whitehall side of the plinth of the Nelson column, and only the intervention of James Kier Hardie, socialist and independent labor member of the House of Commons, who was chairman of the meeting, prevented a serious riot.

As it was, the disorders, many times culminating in fistcuffs between the crowd and the police, continued for almost two hours.

By the time the marching socialist, labor and other organizations, with bands playing the "Marseillaise," reached Trafalgar Square, 20,000 persons had gathered there, and as many more in the surrounding streets.

Permission to hold a meeting was given at the last moment, on the understanding that no suffragettes should be allowed to speak. Unable to secure permission to march as an organization, the supporters of the Women's Social and Political Union marched with the dockers, their colors flying, preceded by a huge banner, inscribed, "Where There's a Will There's a Way."

"AGGIES" WIN AGAIN.

Locals Are Defeated on Saturday by Score of 9 to 6.

The Agriculture team of the Departmental League again lowered the colors of Cardinals by the score of 9 to 6 Saturday afternoon before the largest crowd that has yet visited the ball park.

The Aggies started things in the first inning afte rtwo men were out. They scored 4 runs on two bases on balls an da single by Capt. Murphy and Babbington's double t oleft. The last man was retired on strikes. The Cardinals started like they would retrieve their lost Corl leading off with a hit but was nabbled at second, Williams hitting to second. Trenary hit to left and Astryke fanned while Burgandine went out pitcher to first.

The remainding end of the game was well played and hitting was free for during the nine nnings the Cardinals gainered 14 bingles to the Aggies, nine.

The Cardinals scored 2 runs in the third, two in sixth an dtwo in eight while the Aggies made 4 runs in first one run in fourth and 4 runs in the sixth. Edsness, Coe and Owens with Babbington, were the battery for the Farmer and with the exception of Coe they pitched a good game and received fine support while the team as a whole displayed much ginger.

Burgandine who was on the mound for the local lads pitched good ball but was a little loose with control walking seven men. He should have won his game, but his support was very wobbly and uncertain. Corl on 3rd base for the locals played one of the most sensational game ever seen on this field, making many hard catches and hot stops and batted in good form. Mr. Olsm, the wrestler, was the guest of the Cardinals, and will give an exhibition for the benefit of the Cardinals within a short time.

The Circuit Court of Alexandria city opened its May term this morning with Judge J. B. T. Thornton presiding. The docket was read and a number of cases were set for trial. The most important of these was the suit of some of the stockholders of the Southern Building corporation for a receiver which will be heard next Monday at 10 o'clock.

The suit of E. C. Richardson, William Desmond and William Power against Joseph Hayman for $4,000 damages which are said to have resulted from an automobile collision at the south end of the highway bridge on November 12th, was commenced.

The following constitute the jury: T. Alton Moore, C. W. O'Meara, John G. Graham, J. H. Bartlett, W. E. Lovejoy, Howard T. Colvin, and Albert L. Glover.

MILANO TO HANG.

Washington Shoemaker's Appeal Denied by Court.

Washington, May 5.—Tony Milano, the Italian shoemaker, who was convicted in the lower court of murder in the first degree in connection with the death of Harry Elton Smith, 12-years old, September 11, 1911, will be hanged at the District jail May 16, unless President Wilson interferes.

The Court of Appeals handed down a decision today confirming the judgment of the lower court.

ATTACKED BY NEGROES.

Young Man in Serious Condition as a Result of Blow on Head.

Richmond, May 5.—Frederick J. Kipper, twenty years old, a clerk is in a serious condition at his home as the result of an attack upon him early last night by a crowd of young negro ruffians. Not satisfied with having hit Kipper on the head with a heavy fence paling, nearly fractured his skull, the negroes, a dozen in number, later ran by his home and fired three shots at the house but they did no damage. The police rounded up fourteen suspects, but none of them could be identified as Kipper's assailant, and all were released.

With a young woman companion Kipper was returning from afire at First and Hill streets, where a city refuse pile was ablaze. At First and Jackson streets two negroes passed and one of them brushed against Kipper. The latter is understood to have turned and sharply rebuked him.

When he left the young woman to go home, it was said, he was followed by the two negroes, who had been joined by others. At Third and Duval streets one of them is said to have ran up behind him and struck the young man on the head with the paling.

A citizen, who saw the attack, attempted to catch the negroes, but being unable to do so, he sought Patrolman Sims.

Kipper was knocked to the pavement by the blow and lost consciousness for a few minutes. Dr. J. N. Williams, City Hospital ambulance surgeon, responded to an emergency call. He said that while he did not believe Kipper's skull was fractured, the full extent of his injuries could not be determined until today.

SMILES.

By The Second Ward Bard.

THE HILLS OF BRADDOCK.

The hills of Braddock rolling back
From the river's southern shore,
Are dressed in the rarest splendor known
To Mother Nature's lore,
They're garbed in their green May glory, shown
In turf and vines and trees,
They're sweet with the breath of spring-time borne
On the fresh and cooling breeze.

The perfume of locust lingers there,
Where the Run is winding through,
The butter-cups lift their yellow heads
To catch the glistening dew,
The call of the partridge is answered by
The whistle of thrush and wren,
The blue skies smile o'er the hill-sides fair
And meadow and woods and glen.

The Hills of Braddock, high above
The neighboring busy town,
Seem just as if they were standing guard,
Contentedly looking down
On highways of traffic, marts of trade,
And the worry and rush of men,
For of these the hills, in their tranquil peace
And quiet, have no ken.

It is awfully hard to be a good liar for the field is so full of aspirants and the competition for high honors in this line is so keen.

There are a heap of fellows who can dance on a hot night from 8 p. m., to 1 a.m., but who get an awful misery in the back after sawing wood for ten minutes.

The man who's paid the reaper's toll,
Who's crossed the river o'er,
And left behind him friends who mourn
And hearts both sick and sore,
The man who's jest and laugh we knew
In health, and, too, in pain,
That man's loss is worth grieving for,
He has not lived in vain.

MYSTERY CLEARED.

Young Harrisonburg Woman Who Disappeared Reported to Have Married.

Harrisonburg, Va., May 5.—Mystery surrounding the disappearance of pretty Winnie Pickering, daughter of Squire J. W. Pickering, of Tenth Legion, who left home last Saturday ostensibly for the purpose of visiting relatives in this place, was solved a day or two ago, when it was learned that instead of stopping here she went on to Columbus, O., for the purpose of meeting Harry Togel, of Detroit, Mich. Although it is reported that the two men were married in Columbus Monday, this news has not been confirmed.

It develops that the girl first met Togel several years ago in Lima, O., his former home, and that they have been corresponding regularly since then.

When Miss Pickering failed to arrive at the home of her relatives in Harrisonburg, her family became alarmed, and instituted search throughout the surrounding country, fearing that some serious mishap had befallen her.

So far as can be ascertained there was no particular opposition on the part of her family to her marriage to Togel.

He was formerly in the United States Navy, and is now a successful business man of Detroit.

MINISTERS GRADUATE.

Rev. J. M. Wells Preaches Baccalaureate Sermon at Seminary.

Richmond, Va., May 5.—The baccalaureate sermon of the one hundred and first annual commencement exercises of the Union Theological Seminary in Ginter Park was delivered yesterday morning by Rev. Dr. John M. Wells, of Wilmington, N. C., a graduate of the seminary in 1893. At 8 o'clock last night the annual address to the Society of Missionary Inquiry was delivered by William T. Ellis, of Swarthmore, Pa.

Beginning at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning the final exercises will be held. Rev. Dr. William R. Laird, of Danville, Va., will deliver the address to the graduates, 38 in number, the largest class in the history of the seminary. There are also three postgraduates who go out this year to permanent work. Fifteen of the 41 graduates will go to foreign countries.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Thomas Murphy, a stock broker, was burned to death, and Miss McGourtey was injured, probably fatally, when an automobile in which they were riding overturned near Oneida Castle late yesterday afternoon.

Contracts have been placed for the construction in Japanese yards of three dreadnoughts. They will be sister ships to the Fuso, the displacement of which is 30,000 tons.

RULE A DEAD ONE.

Views of Washington Ministers on Theatre Going.

Washington, May 5.—That the rule of the Methodist Episcopal Discipline regarding theatre going and other forms of amusement is practicalliy a dead letter was admitted today by various eminent divines of that church in Washington, following a pulpit statement to this effect by Rev. Christian Reisner, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, New York.

In New York Dr. Reisner's sermon has aroused a storm of adverse comment. In Washington he is upheld.

Rev. W. R. Wedderspoon, pastor of the Foundry Church; Rev. Jas Shera Montgomery, pastor of the Metropolitan Church, and Rev. L. Morgan Chambers, pastor of McKendree Chu, are among the leading Methodist pastors who agree, to considerable extent to the New Yorker's statement.

"The matter of recreation is left to the individual "conscience," said Dr. Wedderspoon. "The rigorous law may be one thing, but the practice is to leave such matters to the individual. The assertion by Dr. Reisner that the church law regarding theatre going is a dead letter, is a somewhat questionable act, however.

"So far as the application of the law is concerned," said Rev. Mr. Montgomery, "one must agree with Dr. Reisner, It is true, and we know it is true. The rule will be revoked sooner or later, I believe."

Rev. Mr. Chambers said that "any minister who attempted to enforce the anti-theatre rule of the church would decimate his congregation. The matter is left, as it must perforce be, to the individual."

Lumber Yard Burned.

Girls in Rescue Homes.

One thousand girls a year come to the local Salvation Army Rescue and Maternity Home, and of the children born there 85 per cent. are illegitimate, according to the testimony of Miss Anna Hanstin, superintendent, before the legislative investigation committee Friday. "We have taken care of all kinds of girls—drug fiends, drunkards, and women of the underworld, but the last predominate," said Miss Hanstin. "The only promise we exact from applicants is that they will nurse their own babies and take them with them when they leave. We keep track of them where we can after they leave us, but many are foreigners who return to Europe."

JAPAN TO MAKE PROTEST.

Action Taken by California a Great Disappointment.

San Francisco, Cal., May 5.—A cablegram from Tokio to the Japanese-Advertiser, a Japanese daily paper of this city, states today that the Japanese government cabled instructions to Baron Chinda, Japanese ambassador, at Washington, Saturday night to make formal protest against the alien land bill enacted by the California legislature and now awaiting Governor Johnson's signature.

The message adds that the position taken by the Japanese government is responsible for the finding of a satisfactory solution of the situation in California under its treaty obligations to Japan.

Describing the receipt of the news from Sacramento last night that the bill had passed both houses of the legislature, the message says:

"When the Japanese people received the report that the alien land bill had passed the California legislature all the people were deeply disappointed."

The Japanese press today expressed a general appreciation of the efforts of President Wilson in behalf of the land bill in California that would be unobjectionable to the Japanese.

While the Japanese newspapers voice these same sentiments, they blame the government for what they term a "failure of diplomacy."

Several dispatches received at Tokyo from Washington, telling of reported plans for the mobilization of the Japanese navy, are read here with ridicule by those best informed on naval plans.

WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE.

Takes Her Own Life by Turning on Gas in Baltimore.

Baltimore, Md., May 5.—Separated from her husband and three children who are in Richmond, Mrs. Mary Powell, 34 years old, wife of Allen Powell, of Richmond, ended her life late Saturday night at the home of her sister, at 3925 East Pratt street, by inhaling illuminating gas. Relatives of Mrs. Powell here believed that she was preparing to return to Richmond in an effort to affect reconciliation with her husband and children.

Mrs. Powell came to Baltimore several months ago from her home in Richmond. Mutual friends of the couple were trying to have Mrs. Powell return home, and arrangements had been made for her to go to Richmond.

Recently she was worried over the fact that her children being separated from her, and at times would sit alone in her room for hours suffering from melancholia. Last night she went to her room during the absence of her sister and turned on the gas.

BABY WITH EVELYN THAW.

Is For Europe With Child Which She Says is Her Own.

New York, May 5.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, wife of the slayer of Stanford White, sailed on the Olympic Saturday with a child in her stateroom, which was entered on the passenger lists as "Marion Nesbit."

In her stateroom, Mrs. Thaw holding the child in her arms, answered a point blank question as to whose the baby was by saying:

"He is mine; isn't he lovely? He is 2-1-2 years old, and his name is Russell Thaw. He's just the dearest baby in the world.

Mrs. Thaw said she was going to Paris for several months so as to give the baby a change of climate.

It was reported that Mrs. Thaw's baby was born in Hamburg, Germany. But there was nothing to verify this in the birth records there.

They then stated that the child had Mrs. Thaw herself has heretofore always denied that she had any baby, and various stories have been told to account for her possession of an infant. It was declared to be the child of this or that woman friend of the former show girl.

The original rumors of the birth of the child date back only a year ago. They then stated that the child had been born in Hamburg, Germany, in the summer of 1910. A search of the birth registery of the German city failed to shed any light upon the matter.

Toward the middle of last May Mrs. Thaw appeared in Pittsburgh at the home of her stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Holman. It was declared by residents of the neighborhood that she had brought a baby with her.

The Thaw family in Pittsburgh would not comment on the baby feature at all. But Roger O'Mara, the former Chief of Police of Pittsburgh, and the detective who followed the fortunes of the Thaws, said very emphatically that Thaw was not a father, and he did not believe that Mrs. Thaw was a mother.

For a time after that Mrs. Thaw lived in various parts of the town, apparently seeking quiet and retirement. At each of these residences there was a baby, and it was declared to be the child of Mrs. Thaw.

Over his signature yesterday Harry K. Thwa, in the Matteawan State Hospital, made emphatic denial that by any possiblity he could be the father of Russell Thaw, the two-and-a-half-year-old child, who was taken abroad Saturday by Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, who proclamed him as her son. The picture of Mrs. Thaw and her son interested him greatly. He read the account of the sailing of his wife and closely scanned the reproduction of the photograph of the child.

After reading the story of Mrs. Thaw's departure and her statements regarding the boys birth, Thaw sent out the following statement:

"I am not interested in Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's concerns in any way and did know she was going abroad. We no longer have anything in common. Any pretense that I have a child born in 1910 is ridiculous and false, as Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw and I have been absolutely separated for over five years. You newspaper men know this; consequently it is unnecessary for me to say more."
